From Saturday April 8. to Tuesday April 11. 1727.

St. James's, April 11.

THE following humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Whitchurch in the County of Southampton, has been preſented to His Majeſty by John Conduit and Thomas Farringdon, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Whitchurch in the County of Southampton, met together to elect a Member to repreſent them in Parliament.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts full of Acknowledgements for the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your moſt gracious Government, and for your unwearied Endeavours to continue them to your People.

We heard with great Surprize and Concern the Emperour and King of Spain, in a Time of full Peace, prohibit the Woollen Manufactures, on which we ſo much depend; and it is with the higheſt Reſentment we ſee, contrary to all Faith and Treaties, one of thoſe Princes ſetting up an unjuſtifiable Trade, to the great Prejudice of this Kingdom, in Countries conquered for him with Britiſh Blood and Treaſure; and the other openly attacking that important Fortreſs which was yielded to this Nation by the ſame Treaty to which he owes his Crown.

The Engagements entered into in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender filled us with Indignation, and the inſolent Attempts to deceive and miſlead your People, only ſerve to raiſe in us a ſtronger Abhorrence of the Falſhood and Ingratitude of thoſe who offer them, and a warmer Zeal for your Majeſty's Perſon and Honour, and our happy Eſtabliſhment in your Royal Family; in Defence of which we aſſure your Majeſty we will upon all Occaſions exert ourſelves with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, and to the utmoſt of our Power, againſt the Violence or Artifice of any open or ſecret Enemies whatſoever.

The following humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Ancient Borough of Aylesbury, in the County of Bucks, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir William Stanhope, Kt. and Richard Abel, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Antient Borough of Aylesbury, in the County of Bucks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our moſt grateful Senſe of the many great and valuable Bleſſings we enjoy under your auſpicious Government. When we reflect on on the various Steps of your Majeſty's moſt excellent Adminiſtration through the many different Scenes of Affairs, your unwearied Vigilance in the early Diſcovery of the deſtructive Schemes of your Enemies, the powerfull Alliances you have formed, and the ſeaſonable Preparations you have made by the wiſe Diſpoſitions of your Fleets, to fruſtrate their black Deſigns, fill our Hearts with the utmoſt Joy and Satisfaction.

The Affront and Indignity offered your moſt ſacred Majeſty by the inſolent Memorial delivered by Monſieur de Palm, the Emperour's Reſident, and the unparalell'd Inſolency in printing and publiſhing the ſame throughout the Kingdom, raiſeth our higheſt Reſentment.

The Attempt made againſt our Liberties, Trade, and (what is moſt valuable to us) your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, did moſt juſtly ſurprize us, eſpecially when we conſidered it came from a Prince under the ſtricteſt Ties of Gratitude; one who was eſtabliſhed on his Throne by your Majeſty's Aſſiſtance, and owes ſo much to the Valour of the Britiſh Nation, and for whoſe Sake ſo much Blood and Treaſure has been expended. Can his Imperial Majeſty be ſo forgetful of the Laws of Hoſpitality; ſo unjuſt as to employ thoſe Ports to the Ruin of our Trade which he enjoys by our Generoſity; and in Concert with another neighbouring Prince, break through all the moſt ſolemn Leagues and Treaties, with a View to wreſt from us the important Fortreſſes of Gibraltar and Port Mahon, and bring in a Popiſh Pretender, an abjur'd Fugitive, a Tool of Rome, and the Bane of Liberty? one who from his Cradle hath been train'd up in Principles abſolutely deſtructive to both our Civil and Religious Rights, would entirely deprive both the preſent Age and late Poſterity of thoſe happy Advantages and ineſtimable Bleſſings procur'd to us by King William (of Glorious Memory) at the Revolution, the Preſervation whereof we owe to your Majeſty's moſt gracious Government.

We aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall be always ready to the utmoſt of our Power, Hand and Heart, to ſupport and defend your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Crown and Dignity, againſt all Oppoſers whatſoever.

We entirely rely on your ſacred Majeſty's known Goodneſs and paternal Care for the Welfare of your People; may all your Counſels be crown'd with Succeſs, may your Reign be long and glorious, and may your Royal Illuſtrious Family inherit your Kingdoms, Virtues, and the intire Love and Affection of your Subjects to lateſt Poſterity.

Hague, April 14, N. S. On the 12th Inſtant Brigadier Sutton arrived here from England, and on the 16th will proceed to the Court of Caſſel. Letters from Madrid of the 31ſt paſt adviſe, that the Siege of Gibraltar is ſtill carried on ſlowly: And that the Moors had ſuddenly raiſed the Siege of Ceuta; which is believed to be occaſioned by the Death of the Emperour of Morocco, and a Conteſt between two of his Sons for the Throne.

South-Sea Houſe, April 6, 1727.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company give Notice, That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be held at their New Houſe in Threadneedle-ſtreet, on Thurſday next, the 13th Inſtant, at Eleven a-Clock in the Forenoon, on ſpecial Affairs.
